DEDICATION DEDICATION DEDICATION

The class of 1982 proudly dedicates this Postscript to Margaret Gragg. Ms. Gragg serves the students in a very personal way. She always has a student in her office, for she is willing to listen to their problems, complaints, advice and accomplishments. An extremely demanding job, college guidance counselling is Ms. Gragg's most time consuming work. Individual counselling for each student and his/her parents is an annual event for the rising senior class. Ms. Gragg processes each college application, and she often does outside research on scholarships or programs which might interest students. In addition to her work in the college admissions process, Ms. Gragg teaches an advanced placement English course for seniors. Traditionally, most of Ms. Gragg's students qualify for college credit upon taking the AP. Her classes are spiced with films, tapes, handouts and games. The class of 1982 realizes the amount of work done by Ms. Gragg and would like to dedicate this yearbook to her as a small token of their appreciation.

As Charlotte Country Day School
where where we seems next that was me seems his to me every any that was me seems his to me every any that was me seems his to me every any that was me seems his to me every any that was me seems his to me every any one; the aniversary, one's curiosity is aroused. Where did Country Day originate? Just exactly what makes this school different from any other? How have things changed? What has remained the same? As me were not here when Country Day originate? Just exactly what makes this school different from any other? How have things ago, we must be ago, and ago,

P.S. Ill propolly have some parties this summer so you active drop summer light at least one.

ry and growth of Country Day has been capsulized in the personal recollections of Doris Lavender, who has been with Country Day for 22 years. Her perspective is enlightening and entertaining. Hopefully she has captured the essence of Country Day's past for the edification of its future.

In the Country Day yearbook for 1951 (a 16 page pamphlet) there are excerpts from an article written by an alumnus, Lewis Patton, entitled "Ten Years at Country Day School." He remembers his first day in Preschool on September 23, 1941. He and his friend, David Dalton, went into the big "Cramer House" across the street from A. G. Junior High School (now the YMCA) on East Morehead Street. It seems that Lewis had a serious allergy during this time and was not allowed to go outside at recess, so he entertained himself by trying to make friends with an opposum caught by one of the "Upper Graders".

Lewis says in his report that the school moved again in its third year to a big house way out Selwyn Avenue. He still had his allergy and could not go out at recess, so he stayed inside and made believe he was a naval gunner, just like the sailors he saw on the war posters.

In 1945, according to Lewis, the school moved again, to Sharon Road across from Morrocroft Farm where there was enough land around for individual students to grow their own Victory Gardens. The students were so successful at collecting scrap and paper for the war effort that they got their pictures in the newspaper.

Lewis didn't have much to offer about his fourth and fifth grade years, but he does remember moving again to the Sardis Road site, and he does remember staying till 4:00 pm each day for athletics. The big moment came when he moved from the barracks type "out buildings" into the Main Building as a sixth grader. He also remembers that the school bought a big bus that year, and he and Michael Page were the first students to be picked up in it.

These are the memories of the first ten years in Charlotte Country Day School's history as told by a student. We can already get the feeling of comraderie, sound education, extra-curricular activities, community responsibility, sports; that was the foundation of the excellent school we have grown to be.

Actually, Charlotte Country Day School was formed in 1941 by Dr. Thomas Burton with financial backing from some old Charlotte families who believed that Students head for school at the Old Sardis Road Campus.

This year has been great. Especially French + Algebra. Don't you just love Ms. Reed + Ms. B. Can't wait to have 'em again next yar.

Have a great Summer.

Im glad that we got to be better friends thirs year.

and some of History Horida was a blast also. I hope that we can get together somethis summer -have a great one

Love always,

Isobel

Charlotte had grown up enough to offer an alternative to the community for the necessity of sending their sons and daughters away to boarding schools in order to prepare them for college. The late Mr. Allison Pell, Sr., was the first Chairman of the Board.

Let's do some more reminiscing:

On the Sardis Road campus — do you remember . . . ?

The little tiny building that held one chair, one piano, and one bench where the "The Fine Arts" piano teacher, Mrs. Spainhour, conducted piano lessons?

When Pell House competed with Harris House in every area from grades to sports?

Mr. Evans' "Sports Day" where each class chose its own sports in which to compete — there was everything from 3 legged races, sack races, hurdles, 100 dash to the Tug-of-War between Pell and Harris at the end of the events — THEN — the fabulous picnic prepared by all the grade mothers?

The football field that was only 80 yards long. A sustained run would get you a touchdown, but if you were stopped on the 5 yd. line, you had to back up 20 yds., and try again?

Going to the gym with boxing gloves and a referee to settle matters if you got caught fighting?

If you were a little girl, do you remember having to have the sashes sewn back on your dress each night after playing "horses" and using them for reins? The Father-Son-Mother-Daughter Softball games? Mora Copses; she was school secretary, mother, nurse, business manager, bus driver, bell ringer and receptionist; it has taken about ten people to replace her in our new "regime"?

"Ma" Bates' food served family style where the teachers ate with the students and you had to eat some of everything; why did she always have squash and creamed tuna on the same day?

The football banquet when the speaker for the evening was a man who had played in the Rose Bowl the year someone ran the wrong way for a touchdown? He said that wasn't nearly as funny as the man who punted a ball and it exploded in mid-air (in the same game!)?

The Benefit Bridge Parties with zillions of door prizes sponsored by the Parents' Council mothers? Formation of a school library? The Charlotte Bookmobile used to come every two weeks and teachers had books for extra reading in their classrooms—(Marilyn Mills was such a neat librarian; she catagorized hers according to size) but the school had no central library. A plea to parents for books—new or old—went out, and Mrs. Mashburn took on the task of putting together a library;

a task that lasted through several years on our new Carmel Road campus.

Perhaps the school House system needs some explanation. Mr. Booker brought this to Country Day. House systems are ancient and traditional elements of most private schools. They aim to foster school spirit. Pell House/Harris House provided the school with a reasonable standard and with equal competition when it was too young and small to compete with other schools.

In 1955, David L. Howe became Headmaster and Mr. James G. Cannon became affiliated with the Board. It was a powerful duo, and Country Day was on its way as far as academics and enrollment were concerned. Our highest grade was the ninth, and we were ready to expand. We were outgrowing the Sardis Road plant, so, in 1957 a Ten Year plan was established. At the top, a Board of Managers was formed to work under the Board of Trustees. The Trustees retained control but gave full support to managerial proposals, i. e., that the school should plan to move, build a new campus and extend its program through the High School years.

During Mr. Howe's tenure we:

Started the Halloween Parade. Mr. Howe was adament about costumes being original and homemade; no "Store broughten outfits". This posed a great problem for young Charles Willard, then in third grade. It seems his mother had brough him an elegant costume in New York. However, fearing the wrath of the headmaster, he proceeded to remove a sheet from the bed in his parents' guest room—cut two holes in it for eyes—and showed up in an original after all!

Started Christmas Breakfast: This was meant to be an annual affair held on the day school was to be dismissed for the Christmas holiday. All students, parents, grandparents, visiting relatives and alumni were invited to have an old-fashioned breakfast consisting of juice, coffee, grits, scrambled eggs, bacon and biscuits in the school dining hall and to socialize for as long as they could or would before parting for the holidays. It was a huge success—a huge undertaking by the Parents' Council, extremely good public relations for the school and was continued when we moved to our present campus. It continued to grow to the point where we were serving 1500+ people.

Started Big Saturday: We have Mrs. James G. Cannon to thank for originating our Big Saturday—a fair, bazaar, fun day—netting much money thanks to the year-round work of the Parents' Council mothers. This money was meant to be used to purchase the "extras" not covered by the school's annual budget. During the years this money has paid for playground equipment, kitchen equipment, computer equipment, memory typewriters and other things too numerous to mention but thoroughly and sincerely appreciated by those who use them.

During the summer of 1960 the Board of Managers took a major vote of confidence in Country Day by determining to build and move to the Carmel Road property. A gift of 30 acres of land by Mr. and Mrs. James J. Harris together with the resources provided in a $480,000 capital fund drive, made the vision a reality. The move to the present campus was accomplished in September, 1960, with the basic buildings necessary: Bray Hall for Lower School, Pell Hall and the Cannon Science Building for Upper School, Barnhardt administration and library building, Sanger dining hall and Harris gymnasium. Mrs. Haywood, who had joined the school in the spring before the move to the new campus, was appointed Development Director and Enrollment Secretary. She has done a yeoman's job in those areas as well as many others (School Nurse, receptionist, Sustaining Fund Secretary, etc., etc.) for 20 years now.

Along with the addition of an eleventh grade, the traditions of Christmas Breakfast, Big Saturday and May Day moved to the new campus. Mr. Howe was a great devotee of the May Pole Dance and was often disappointed in the performance of said dance (which can be very complicated) by young children. As the great decision-maker one year he decreed that the faculty would perform the May Pole Dance and so it was! There were several casualities the rehersals by the "volunteers" (?), and Workman's Compensation covered the injuries. It would have been priceless to have been a "mouse-in-the-corner" when a claim was opened: Name____Age: 60-Female Occupation: Teacher Injury: 2 sprained ankles. How did the injury occur? Doing the May Pole Dance!!! May Day sort of faded away after that year.

Mr. Howe came to Country Day from North Shore Country Day in 1955. Under his leadership the school population grew from 150 students to become a student body of 554.

Dr. A. Emerson Johnson succeeded Mr. Howe as headmaster in July 1969—coming to us from North Cross School in Roanoke, Va. Under his leadership the school started the paperwork to accreditation (no small job) by SACS. There were meetings on top of meetings; there were forms to be filled out half-a-dozen times giving the same information in six different ways. Yes, we had arrived! We were now part of the great "Red Tape Brigade." Also in 1969 the Board of Trustees appointed a Planning Committee charged with projecting curriculum, space needs, enrollment and capital fund requirements for the decade of the 70's. This report was adopted unanimously by the Board and is contained in a document know as Aims.

While Dr. Johnson was at Country Day the question of dress code arose—a very conservative man—he had insisted that the faculty have a dress code and set a good example for students. Ladies would not wear pants suits and men would wear ties and jackets. Much harder to control, however was the student dress. (They really had no specific dress code.) This poor man inherited the mini-skirt era, and academics were more or less put on the back burner while teachers ran around with rulers measuring skirt lengths and sending young ladies home who were judged to be dressed inappropriately for an academic atmosphere!! Wonder if Dolly Hickman still has that ruler?

In 1970 NAIS was to be held in Atlanta. It is very seldom so near, and Dr. Johnson decided as many faculty as wanted to could attend. About 8 or 10 car loads planned to attend, but Mother Nature had a little monkey wrench to throw into the works—namely a freak, enormous March snow storm. Some cars were on their way when they hit the snow and returned to Charlotte. Dr. Johnson's car ended up with five or six people spending the night in one motel room in Spartanburg—Susan Saunders and her group recall it taking 14 hours to get to Atlanta. They stopped under a bridge on I-85 and listened to a whole ACC basketball tournament game before they could move on. She says that all they had to eat was a loaf of homemade bread Sally Dowd had sent to one of the occupants of the car.

To meet the needs of a larger student body and improve educational methods, Country Day launched a Program of Progress divided into three phases. Phase I called for raising $1,350,000, and by November 1, 1971, a total of $1,380,000 had been pledged toward the objectives of Phase I. These objectives consisted of building a Learning-Teaching Center, a Student Center, and an addition to the gym, and renovation of the dining hall and administration building.

Renovation of the Administration Building was the next thing to a circus or a nervous breakdown. You could take your choice. The staff would continue to work while air hammers, roofers, carpet layers, painters—you name it—worked around them. Indeed—a time to remember! Since we were building a Learning Center it could house the Library. Therefore, the area which had been used in the Barnhardt as a library was redesigned by Mr. Watson Burts to accommodate numerous staff and administrative offices and a space for a Board Room. The arrangement at the back of the building at present is the outcome of the growth of the business end of running the "Mini-General Motors" CCDS has become!

William B. Pfeifer became head of Charlotte Country Day during the summer of 1972. He had not been a headmaster before but came to us from the Administrative division of the Williamsburg Foundation in Virginia. His senstivity to the problems of staff, and faculty persons, and people in the parent body was uncanny. He was the first person on the scene in a crisis, and there are people still associated with the school who will say,

"I never could have gotten through it without Bill Pfeifer." He worked personally with parents who wanted to do something special and different for the school. The results were—the furnishing of the Board Room and the establishment of our typing program through the donation of the equipment now found in our typing room. He also realized the need for the faculty to get together now and then to let their hair down and relax. He and his charming wife, Sandy, would give periodic parties enjoyed by all. However, one Christmas party brought on a catastrophe for one of the guests. It took almost a month to solve the mystery of the "Wrong Mink Stole." Someone had picked up the wrong wrap as she left the party and the owner was just devasted! Notices in the daily bulletin brought no results-until-the solution finally came to light. One of the guests was wearing a stole borrowed from her sister. When she returned it, her sister said—"This isn't my stole!" The exchange was finally made, and everyone breathed a sigh of relief that there really wasn't a thief among us!

Under Mr. Pfeifer we established a real office of Development to handle fund raising and public relations for the school. During this time Phase II of the Program of Progress was undertaken and the monies used to enlarge the Science facilities and to build our Fine Arts Building. In the past, ingenuity was the prime requisite for belonging to the Drama Workshop. Plays were presented either in Room T or in the Learning Center where building sets—moving them—and storing them during the day while the areas were used for other purposes, posed a real challenge. It was, therefore, a real shock when the first play presented in the new magnificent facility was presented on a stage with no set except a bare scaffolding and a bunch of wadded up newspapers! Guess they couldn't handle prosperity!

God is great; God is good, and we thank Him for Mark Hagerman! During the school year before Mr. Pfeifer resigned, it became necessary to hire both an Assistant Headmaster and a Head of Lower School. Mr. J. R. Williams, a young history instructor at Taft School, was hired as Assistant Head, and this time the Board decided he would be groomed and trained to take over the leadership of the school when next we needed a headmaster. Mr. Hagerman was former headmaster at Forsyth Country Day in Winston Salem and would become

Head of our Lower School which was floundering

Top: The Learning Center houses the libraries, audio-visual equipment, teachers' offices, computer room archives and student study carrels. around with little leadership as Mr. Pfeifer had tried to be all things to all people and finally realized they needed someone to call their own.

During summer vacation Mr. Pfeifer resigned—Mr. Williams was appointed Acting Headmaster and Mr. Hagerman joined us as Head of Lower School. While Mr. Williams was on a trip to the middle west he was taken seriously ill, and it was obvious that he would not be able to assume the responsibilities that go with the job of Headmaster. So... thank God for Mark Hagerman! We were lucky enough to already have on our staff a man who had been a headmaster! The Board asked him to become Interim Head—and the Search Committee was off again to find us a new headmaster.

Mr. Hagerman took a very serious situation and guided the school through one of its smoothest years. Always an open door—willing to make a decision on the spot—tremendous respect for the competence of his colleagues—it seemed that everyone rose in their own esteem and everyone did a little something extra to get the school through this time of crisis. Meanwhile, the Search Committee was at work and this time they really did it!! On a rainy Sunday night in January 1975, Mr. Hagerman and "friend" were out at the school making copies of a letter from the Chairman of the Board informing parents, staff and faculty that Mr. Horton Reed had been unanimously chosen as the next headmaster of Charlotte Country Day. Mr. Reed's credentials were awesome—he had started at "square one" and built, staffed, and run an Episcopal Day School in Jacksonville, Fla.

A completely new era was to begin at Charlotte Country Day School. Mr. Reed considers himself to be a "Corporate Head" and leaves the running of the nitty-gritty to the very capable educators on his administrative staff. With such a dynamic person at the helm noone was too astonished to read the following during his first year at CCDS.

September 25, 1979

Dear Parents:

We are delighted to announce that on Monday, September 24, the Boards of Trustees of Carmel Academy and Charlotte Country Day School voted (unanimously) to merge our two institutions. While legally the merger is now taking place, both schools will maintain their academic separation until June. Thus, there will be ample opportunity to complete properly all the necessary arrangements for the future combined operation.

Our primary interest, of course, is the opportunities for education and all-round growth offered to our students. In this regard, after reviewing the experiences of other prominent day schools, and after exploring our concept of merger with the educational leaders of our own institutions, we are wholly confident that our students will benefit greatly from this action. In fact, both Horton Reed and Alice Litwinchuk have emphatically endorsed our decision and have pledged their wholehearted commitment and support in its implementation.

Mr. Recd will continue to serve as Headmaster of Charlotte Country Day School. Under his direction Miss Litwinchuk will continue as Principal of the Carmel Campus and Mark Hagerman will be appointed Principal of the CCDS campus. The Country Day Board, joined by Trustees from the Carmel Board, will govern the School.

In the weeks and months ahead, you will receive announcements about all aspects of the School's future operation. Meanwhile, let us share with you our excitement about some of the plans made possible by pooling the resources of the two institutions.

On the Carmel Campus, a new Middle School, with its own identity, faculty, and program appropriate to that age group. (Among new opportunities will be formal foreign language study and intramural sports.)

On the CCDS Campus, an expanded Lower School program (including more facilities and specialized instruction available according to individual need, as well as additional new activities outside the classroom).

Also on the CCDS Campus, a more comprehensive program for the Upper School. (For example, it will now be possible academically to offer more breadth, as in instrumental music, and more depth in advanced placement study; athletically, we shall have greater strength in both the intra- and interscholastic programs.)

Transportation will be available between campuses at the beginning and end of the school day, and at other times for special activities.

In forming this new educational community, it is natural - perhaps inevitable - that a myriad of temporary concerns will arise about former customs or loyalties, and about new questions or rumors. We hope that you will share our enthusiastic conviction that all such matters can and will be resolved, so that we all may provide a truly superior education for our children.

Sincerely,

Louis A. Bledsoe, Chairman

- Board of Trustees

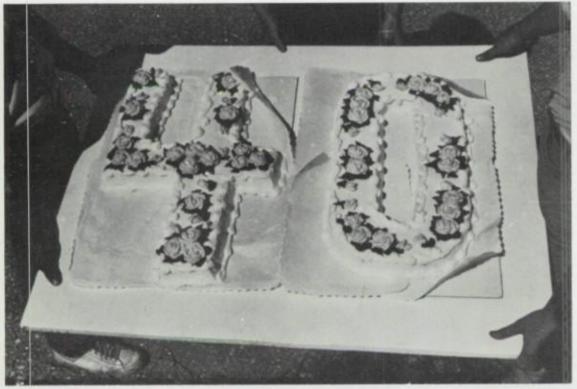

Charlotte Country Day School

William H. Dougherty Chairman Board of Trustees

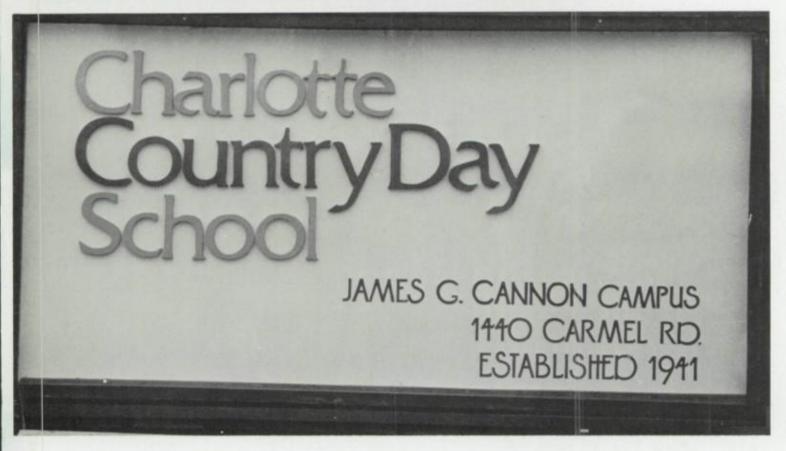

Carmel Academy

Although Doris Lavender's report ends with the merger, the success felt at the close of last year indicates that the merger could well be the most exciting event in the entire history of Country Day. Ms. Lavender's words are quite interesting to the student at Country Day, forty years later. The reason for that is the key to Country Day's success. Country Day students of the past, present, and hopefully, future share the same goals, impediments, ideals and aspirations. The people of the school make Country Day what it is — a proud leader in the pursuit of excellence.

Above: The students themselves are responsible for the attitude at Country Day. Left: The Fortieth Anniversary celebration included the presentation of a cake by the Upper School Student Government which was later donated to charity. The Middle School gave a Time Capsule to be opened in another forty years, and the Lower School also make a contribution to the program.

Big Saturday 1981

Big Saturday, held in April, was definitely the most profitable ever. The total profit was approximately $37,000. Portions of the money were used to buy a new computer, art room furniture for the Carmel Campus, and choir uniforms.

Graduation 1981

The class of 1981, 94 members strong, graduated in outdoor services on June 4. Some highlights of the evening were the commencement address by Mr. David Howe, a former headmaster, and the dedication of the campus to James Cannon.

The class of 1981 was honored the Sunday before at a Baccalaureate service. The class definitely deserve honors because they were a class of achievers. The achievements are as follows: Gardiner Roddey received the Stuart, Daniel Webster Scholarship, and the Lewis. Mike Tarner, Kathy Camble, and Gardiner Roddey were recipients of the National Merit Scholarship winners. Mike Tarner and Gardiner Roddey both received appointments to the U.S. Naval Academy Scholarships. Chan Swallow received a NROTC Scholarship to Tulane, Mark Neinast received one to N.C. State, and Mike received one to Rice University. Laura Taft received the Senior of the year award.

HALLOWEEN PARADE

Started in 1948, the lower school Halloween Parade has always been a huge success. Aquilifer Service Club members help lead the children in a parade around the upper school. The children dress in their Halloween costumes.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming 1981 was a huge success, featuring a pep rally, a "Spirit Week", a well-attended dance, and numberous athletic events. Suci Roddey was crowned homecoming queen by last year's queen, Laura Taft. On Suci's court were Elliot Smyth and Penny Day (freshmen), Margaret Martin and Catherine Martin (sophomores), Sara Smith and Ansley Bost (juniors), and Jennifer Smith, Shelly Boulware, Susan Levin, and Sharon Brown (seniors).

SCHOOL-IN-THE-WOODS

During the fall of 1981 the middle schoolers traveled to Camp Thunderbird for School-in-the-Woods. Each grade participated in many academic and extracurricular activities. The time spent at the camp was enjoyed by all who took part.

Students watch as their friends repel down the wall.

LANGUAGE DAY

A new activity this year at Country Day, Language Day was enjoyed by the whole upper school. The day featured a singing competition, a skit competition, and a cheering session. Each language, French, Spanish and Latin, competed against each other. The skits were the best part of the day. The Latin Club acted a portion of Julius Caesar, the French Club brought to life Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, and the Spanish Club took the floor with an episode of General Hospital, complete with commercials.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY BLOOD DRIVE

In the spring of 1981, the Honor Society sponsored a blood drive. By reaching their goal of 81 pints of blood, the Society was awarded with an ice cream party for the upper school students.

Right: Ice cream was enjoyed by all. Below: Henny Hielm and Laura Taft and Mr. Timson supervise the distribution of the ice cream. Below right: Jan Johnson contributes blood.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY INDUCTION

Each year several students receive the honor of being inducted into the National Honor Society. These students are recognized as having an outstanding grade point average as well as being at Country Day for at least a full year.

Students clap for the newly inducted members.

Newly inducted members receive the candlelight.

Members of the Society stand for applause.

The shop featured a successful plant sale.

The Holly Shop, held at the Carmel campus, was a true success. The shop featured a plant booth, a Christmas tree sale, handcrafted items, and baked goods. The Holly Shop began the Christmas spirit for all at Country Day.

Spaghetti Dinner

The Spaghetti Dinner was sponsored by the boys varsity baseball team. Many people supported the function including the cheerleaders, students, and parents. The money raised was used to send the baseball team to Clearwater, Florida for a spring training camp.

SENIOR

Nobody Does It Better . .

The class of 1982 is outstanding in many respects.

Seniors are active in areas of leadership, academics, and athletics.

Seniors are the presidents of twenty of the most active clubs in Country Day's history. Mary Martha Bledsoe, president of the girls' service club. Aquilifer says that her goals for the year are helping all facets of the school and doing more than ever before. Other club presidents echoed the same sentiments.

Academically, seniors are taking more AP courses than any previous CCDS class. Full calculus and AP English classes are indicative of this

As far as athletics, senior captains of the twenty varsity sports at CCDS have led their teams to successful seasons and have competed at various levels of state competition.

One teacher commented that the class of 1982 is the most active class that she has ever seen at Country Day. Needless to say, this year's senior class will be a tough act to follow.

But the greatest of them is love. — I

All a man needs is a fighting chance. — Steve Dellinger

Seniors Active In Student Council . . .

The class of '82 has added greatly to the effectiveness of this year's student government. President Marshall Mills has started a new student-faculty relationship; the establishment of the test calendar is obvious proof. Senior reps Ann Potter, Steve Dellinger and Jamie Ferro help with the snack bar, carnation sales and all other council functions. Lisa Schwartz, chairman, and Sammy Koenigsberg are the senior reps on the newly formed honor council.

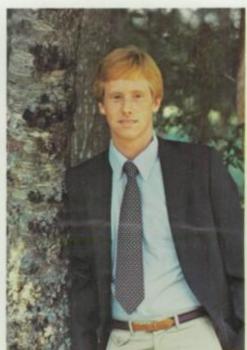

WANDA GAY CULBRETH — The grand essentials to happiness in this life are something to do, something to love, and something to hope for.

STEPHEN DOUGLAS DEL-LINGER — There is no such thing as a loser, just a slow winner. — John Naber All a man needs is a fighting

Class of 1982 is CD's Twentieth . . .

The senior class of '82 is the twentieth graduating class in the school's history according to Rick Bryan, admissions director, who is an authority on the ccds legacy. In 1962 a class less than a quarter the size of this year's received diplomas in much the same way the ninety seniors of 1982 expect to on June 3rd.

TODD ANDREW GORELICK — Please do not shoot the pianist. He is doing his best. — Oscar Wilde

CHERRI GUIN — Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

Todd Fisher from Olympic, Jennifer Gallagher from South Meck, Helene Keyzer from England, Katherine Shannonhouse and Bill Tourtellot from Latin were all welcomed additions to the class of 1982. They came for everything from "the American high school experience" to athletics. With these five, the enrollment of the class numbers exactly ninety.

Seniors Boast Eight National Merit Semifinalists . . .

Country Day had more National Merit Scholar semifinalists this year than ever before. None of the other public or private schools in Charlotte had as many as the eight at CCDS. Based on their outstanding performance on the PSAT, Catherine Elliott, Todd Gorelick, Greg Gurski, Marshall Mills, Mark Sally Portnoy, Scott, Jennifer Smith and Lynn Tarte achieved semifinalist status. Several other seniors were recognized as National Merit Commended Scholars.

LISA ANNE JOHNS - Sometimes, not often enough, we reflect upon the good things and those thoughts always center around those we love . . . and I count those times I have forgotten to say thank you and just how much I love you. It has come time to part, but the friendship we have created will last forever.

As in previous years, two senior girls were chosen from the class of 1982 to go to England for a semester for the Woodberry Forest at England program. After a presentation by Mr. MacKenzie, head of the trip, all interested girls submitted applications. From this, Leigh Droescher (fall term) and Pam Gorelick (winter term) were chosen to represent Country Day.

PEDRO MARTIN

ANN RUTLEDGE MCGREGOR

 I look in unscared and I wonder that will soon be me. But in my own mind I'll find my reason. In the lonesome of the road. Take away the words, the songs, and all the things I had before. Take away the cities, pain and all the lies that I've endured. Give me a way to survive and I'll fight for my life. After all I'm just starting now and I've still got a while. - Elizabeth Swados

This year's senior class voted in the fall to dedicate the 1982 Postscript to Ms. Gragg. A high honor, the dedication is given to the teacher that the senior class feels has done the most for the class as a whole. Eight teachers were nominated, and initial voting brought the class to a run-off between two faculty members. The senior class would like to thank Ms. Gragg for all that she has done for the class and the school.

BRIAN MELTSNER — Let the disappointments pass
Let the laughter fill your glass
Let your illusions last until they shatter
Whatever you might hope to find
Among the thoughts that crowd your mind
There are not many that ever really matter
But take good care of your brother
And remember to be kind
When the pain of another will serve you to remind
That those who feel themselves exiled
On whom the fortune never smiled
They're just looking for another lonely child. — Jackson

Seniors See Campus Expand . . .

Over the past twelve to fourteen years, seniors have had the opportunity to see Country Day expand in many areas. Some of the newer buildings are: the learning center, the theater, the science lab, the track, the bookstore, the typing room, and the field hockey field. Without a doubt, these improvements have changed the entire CCDS campus.

CLASS

Tenth Graders Sponsor Candy Cane Sale . .

The Sophomore class has been very active this year. Chip Cash, David Gladstone and Jim Rea added much to the Country Day Student Council in their role as class representative. Several of the JV sports teams were led by members of the tenth grade. Class officers Shelly Mendel, Deila Welton, Katie White and Lisa Clark were in charge of such functions as the Christmas candy cane message sale. Aiding the officers were homeroom reps Mary Brand, John Fishburne, Catherine Martin, Henry Pharr and Robert Tarte. The class of 1984 has excellent leadership potential and should add much to future years at Country Day.

CLASS Arrives on Cannon Campus . . . Blows Upperclasses Away with Spirit.

campus, the class of 1985 showed up the sophomores, juniors and seniors in enthusiasm and spirit. After much hard work during Spirit Week, the freshmen won the class spirit competition with the sophomores coming in a close second. The freshman class

In their first year on the new Cannon continued to support school activities throughout the year. The Student Council representatives and class officers gave time and effort to many of the Country Day sponsored activities. Congratulations for a good year, freshmen, don't lose that spirit!

EIGHTH

GRADE

The week of Nov. 2 gave the 8th grade an experience at the school in the woods. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of that week they spent at the school in the woods. On Friday, November 13th, the 8th grade sponsored a very successful dance at the Carmel Gym. The 8th grade on the 1st of October took a trip to the Polk Museum. They had a special experience at the museum and learned special things from this historic place. Good luck to the class of 1986 as they move up to the high school on Cannon Campus.

SEVENTH

GRADE

The seventh grade donated much enthusiasm to the Middle School Carmel campus this year. They participated well in spirit week December 7-11. The class bought spirit chains which were joined together at the pep rally on the 11th. The boys participated in the PE wrestling matches where they almost defeated the eighth grade boys. The seventh grade enjoyed work on the time capsule which was buried December 11th. In forty years, the Middle School will open the capsule. The seventh grade of 2021 will have a hard act to follow after the involvement of this years class.

SIXTH

GRADE

The sixth grade exhibited fine leadership this academic year. They led in the fifth and sixth grade food drive during Thanksgiving. The class also gave much thought to the time capsule and spirit week festivities which dominated Middle School life. The sixth graders in the choir lent much to the Cannon Campus Christmas performance. Despite valiant efforts by the fifth grade, the sixth grade boys won the Middle School wrestling tournament 24-0. The sixth grade should continue to develop to its potential during the 1982-83 school season.

FIFTH

GRADE

This was the fifth grade's first year at the Middle School Carmel Campus. During the year, the class made a few trips, one of which was a trip to Old Salem. The fifth and sixth grade student government sponsored a Thanksgiving food collection in which over one thousand food items were brought in. The choir including some fifth graders sang on Cannon Campus during the Christmas season. All in all, the fifth grade had a year of new experiences.

FOURTH

GRADE

The fourth grade changes classes and teachers for the first time! For their French classes, the students go to Monsieur L'Oiseau, and the students also change classes for language arts. The fourth grade is involved in a Great Books Program in their language arts classes. The program is a class in which the students read quality literature and interpret what the author says. Public speaking is also a main part of the language arts classes as the students learn to write speeches and to speak in front of their classes. History is additionally a major portion of the fourth grade curriculum. The students study the background of North Carolina, and in connection with this, they take a trip to Reed Gold Mine. Every May the fourth grade travels to Raleigh to take a tour of the state capitol. The students see the government at work in the legislative and capitol buildings. They also visit the history, art and natural science museums. One of the highlights of the trip is seeing the governor's mansion. Throughout the school year the fourth graders learn to function independently as they prepare to move to the Middle School campus for fifth grade.

THIRD

GRADE

The 1981-82 school year was busy as well as exciting for Country Day's third graders. Field trips and school plays kept the students busy and taught them new, interesting facts as well. Some of the trips include the Nature Museum and the James K. Polk House. A detailed time line of American history from 35,000 B.C. to the present was studied by one class, while another class learned about the Ancient Egyptians. A third class conducted a study of the American Indian. Halloween stories coupled with sound tracks were engineered by the students to accompany their lessons. Participation in the annual Halloween Parade was a big highlight of the class' busy year. The class of 1991 is indeed looking forward to the fourth grade with bright and curious eyes.

SECOND

GRADE

As usual, the second grade learned a great deal this year. They made many exciting field trips, and they participated in all the activities on the Cannon Campus. Two of their favorite activities were the cheerleading clinic put on by the varsity cheerleaders and the Country Day Christmas celebration. The class of 1992 will stay on Cannon campus for two more years before they move on to the Middle School Carmel campus.

FIRST

GRADE

The class of 1993, the first grade, has learned many new, exciting things this year. A special attraction for the class was the addition of French lessons. Other studies include introductions to the pilgrims, Indians, animals and foreign countries. As side excursions, they visited a farm and the York County Museum.

KINDERGARTEN

CLASS

The kindergarten was very busy during their first year at Country Day. One of their major projects was writing pals, where they communicated with another kindergarten in Monroe, Iowa. During Thanksgiving, the kinder-garteners studied the Pilgrims and Indians. The class added its part to the Upper School Student Council food collection and Big Saturday. Good luck at CD to the class of 1994!

The Varsity Soccer team had a great season with an overall record of 9-2-4. They finished with a 5-1 record in the conference. Senior Dain Dulaney was this season's high scorer, with 9 goals. Steven Teichmann and Chip Knox had 5 goals each. Mark Portnoy and Joe Roddey helped score many goals. Goalie Elliott Pratt showed his skill throughout the season, giving up only 12 goals all season. Chip Knox, Steve Teichmann and Elliott Pratt made the 1st team All-district.

This year's football team enjoyed a very successful season. Finishing with a 9-2 record and a State Championship, the season was one of the finest ever. The record was marred by losses to rivals Charlotte Catholic and Gaston Day. The Buccaneers, however, replayed the Spartan team and won with a 20-0 fourth quarter thrashing in the state playoff semi-final match. The highlights of the season included first ever wins over South Iredell, in a thrilling opener, and Hunter Huss, the first 4A team ever to visit Country Day. Paced by a strong defense and an effective offense the team went on to maul the Raiders from Pender Academy 52-6, and capture the State Championship, something which has eluded the team in previous years.

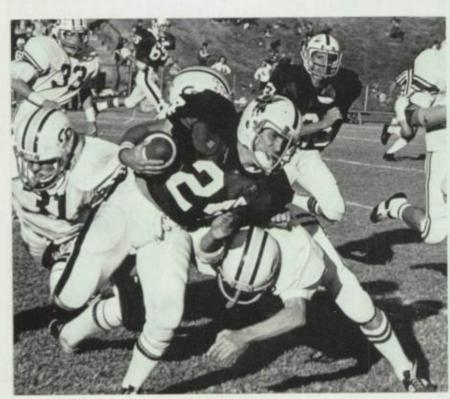

Next year's team should remain strong but, many seniors will be missed. They are David Dooley, Bill Tourtellot, Wayne Dixon, Brian Meltsner, Jimmy White, Todd Fisher, William Guillion, Mike Cofer, and Zac Collins. The Lavender Cup was won by David Dooley, and the MVP was won by Mike Cofer.

The Varsity Volleyball Team this year had a conference record of 7-1 and an overall record of 17-5. Country Day scored over 876 points and their opponents scored 545 points. The team members were awarded many times. Sonia Little, Co-Captain was awarded CISAA All-Conference and Julie Hoffman also Co-Captain was awarded the same. The Coaches were Mrs. Pignetti and Mrs. McKee.

The 1981 Varsity Boys Tennis Team had an outstanding season. Finishing the year with 11 wins and 6 losses, the team went on to finish second in the conference and fifth in the state. Led by #1 player Eric Little, who finished second in the individual tournament, the Bucs team included Gardiner Roddey, Greg Walker, Dain Dulaney, and Peter Felkner. The doubles team was almost as strong, paced by the play of "Puben and the Shiek," alias Griff Hathaway and Joe Roddey. Next year's team hopes to please new coach Joey Condor, with the return of five regulars, all but one a junior.

The Varsity Field Hockey team had another highly successful year ending with a record of 15-1-0. The team is 31 members strong with 13 Sophomores; some are starters. The team also has 11 Juniors who played at a very high level of skill all season long. The 11 seniors added a most important edge to the CCDS team. The team had high scoring season with 50 goals, 26 of which were scored by Sophomore Mary Brand. The two talented goalies were Louise Rogers and Margaret White. The team were runners-up in the Ashville Tournament. Heather McKee and Mary Brand were named to the All-Tournament team. Other team awards are Jennifer Smith—MVP, Sheri Toler—MIP, Bonnie Woods—Coaches Award.

The Lady Bucs finished their season with an undefeated record, beating Gaston Day (80-33) for the last game. The overall record of 11-5 included non-conference games. The team has some excellent players such as MaryBeth Brennan, and Heather McKee, who both made the all-conference team. The managers were Margaret White, Margie Bryant and Mary White.

Experience Pays Off In The Long Run . . .

This year's cross-country team was very inexperienced, with only two seniors. The team was not too successful in dual meets, but performed admirably in the conference meet. They rose to the occasion in this meet by displacing Latin and finishing second to Northside. In the state meet the team slipped to an eighth place state finish. The season began and ended with victories over Latin.

The team was led by Jim Grode and team captains Phil Dee and Greg Gurski. Individual honors went to Jim Grode and Phil Dee. Both were named to the all-conference team and Phil made all-state. Next season should be very successful with six of the top seven runners returning, including the teams top two performers. There is a very good chance of next year's team winning the conference championship, something that Country Day teams have not done for a long time.

In an effort to promote school spirit, the Varsity cheerleaders have worked hard since August. It all began with Cheerleading Camp at Chapel Hill. During football season, the cheerleaders held more pep rallies than ever before. The highlight of the season was the Homecoming pep rally which included the "sports teams" court. The cheerleaders cheer at all football games and all home volleyball games during the fall, and all boys games and all away girls games during basketball season.

Just like any sport the cheerleaders practice for at least an hour every day except game days. Part of the practice time is devoted to making signs to promote spirit. They also held a cheerleading clinic for K-6 graders from the lower school. This idea, conceived by Ms. Mills, was very successful and another is planned for next year.

VARSITY GIRLS' TENNIS TEAM

The 1981 Girls Varsity Tennis team enjoyed a successful season with an overall record of 13-3. The team finished second in the conference and fourth in the state. The season was highlighted with big wins over Providence Day, Gaston Day, and Durham Academy. Isabel Hamilton and Kristi Hamel were named to the all-conference team and Sara Windell was a finalist in the state tournament. Other top players were Suci Roddey and Debbie Hamel. Joey Conder, in his first year, did a great job coaching the team.

The Junior Varsity Wrestling team had a 2-2 season. They beat Providence Day and Independence while losing to West Lincoln and Kings Mountain. The top Wrestlers were Jimmy Flanders, Steve Hardin, Chris Baucom, Allen Liles. Other team members were Tom Grasty, Greg Plumides, Chad Robinson, Frank Middleton, Jimmy Thomas, Adam Fordman, Charlie Neil, Frank Jackson, Fred Dockery, Tommy Rikenbacker, Jack Knight, and Phil Dee.

This year's Varsity Wrestling team had an overall record of 6-10. The Wrestling team was undefeated in the private school league. Eddie Levins had a winning season being undefeated after Christmas. Marshall Mills had an excellent season placing first in the Myers Park Tournament. Key wrestler Jamie Ferro was instrumental in winning many matches and was undefeated in dual meets. Other wrestlers were Will Allen, Stephan Vaughn, Woodward Middleton, Andy Baucom, and Bryan Butler. Sherri Toler and Beth Broadway were the managers of the team.

VARSITY BASEBALL

Perfect Record Ends In State Championship

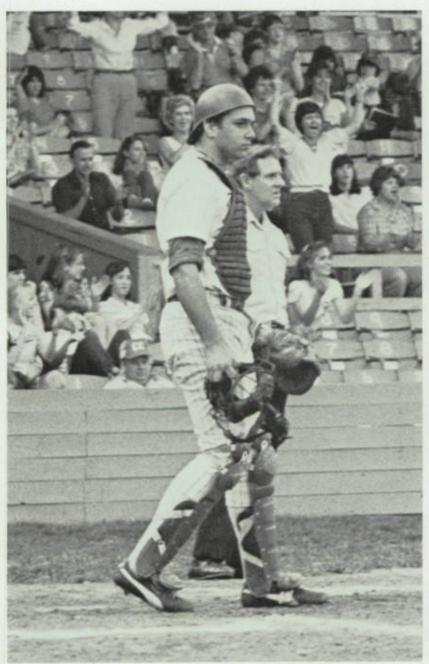

The Varsity Baseball team again had a winning season. The season record was 9-0. They maintained a 15-7 overall and went to the state Tournament. The Country Day pitchers were Mike Cofer, Chip Knox, Phil Lane, Will Underwood, and Robby Babb. The in-field consists of Phil Hess, Brad Knowles, Reid Harkey, Steve Tomanchek, Brian Meltsner, Alex Whisenant, Robert Dixon, and Flynn Harris. The outfielders were Mike Tarner, Jeff Plumer, Stuart Green, David Kinsey, Scott Fuller, and Ron Hewett.

VARSITY SOFTBALL

Ends Fine Season Finishing 2nd in State

Sitting on the bench isn't that bad.

The Softball team set its goal the first day they met for try outs. This would be the first year there would be a State Tournament and they would be there and they were!

On the way to that goal, the record was 11-1 through the season. They won the conference tournament with Eli Rivers, being named the MVP. The all conference team was Eli Rivers, Julie Hoffman and Henny Heilman. Then they went on to the District Tournament and Judy Murray was named the MVP.

The Varsity girls then defeated Salem Academy and Pender Academy to face Hobgood Academy in the finals. They ended up 2nd in the state, but the girls were all #1 champions in spirits and effort. (winning 17 and losing only 3, overall)

The lady who coached the team was Mrs. Pat McKee. The team members include Lee Mills, Alice Griffin, Henny Heilman, Judy Murray, Tracy Sullivan, Shelley Boulware, Julie Hoffman, Laura Kinney, Tracy O'Leary, Suci Roddey Bonnie Woods, Heather Mckee, Eli Rivers, and Lisa Tarner. Sandy Knox was the scorekeeper.

Some distinct team members are the "hitters" Eli Rivers and Julie Hoffman, with over a dozen homeruns between them. Although Tracy O'Leary was the lead off pitcher Shelley Boulware was known as the come through pitcher. Judy Murray also rarely let a ball go by.

TRACK TEAM

Goes The Extra Mile

The Boys' Varsity Track Team had an undefeated season. Tad Porter led the team in the shot and discuss events. Mark Falls was the leader in the high jump; Chan Swallow in the long and triple jump, and Greg Brittain, Phil Dee, and Jeff Plumer added a great deal to the team effort. This season was a great one because of individual and team efforts.

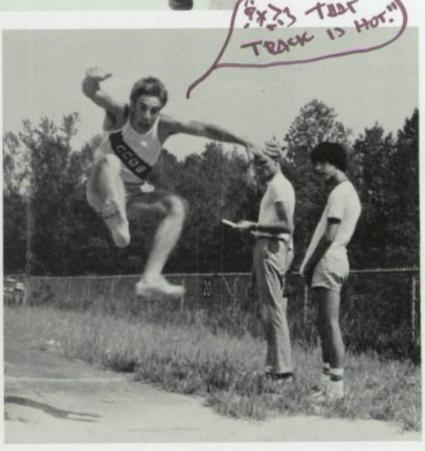

The 1981 Girls' Track team was more than 60 members strong. In fact it became the largest varsity team sport at Country Day. The team had a 4-0 record and attended the CISAA and state meets. The team contributes a lot to the Country Day athletic sports.

The J.V. Track Team had an excellent season with an undefeated conference record. Outstanding in the field events were Prett Majette, John Hazelhurst, Chris Simpkins, and Chip Cash. Excellent sprinters included John Powell, Gary Helms, Bruce Walker, Woodward Midleton, Wes Wilkenson, and Jack Mulligan. Scott Huelin, Yates Pharr, Steven Klein, Robert Tarte, and Henry Pharr were leaders in the long distance events.

Cheer the Bucs To Victory

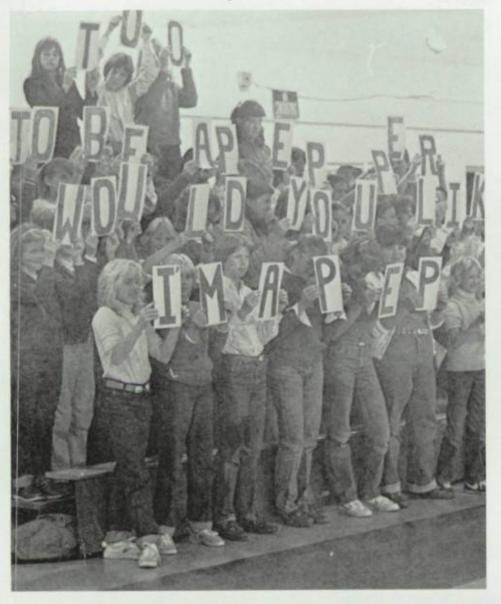

JUNIOR HIGH CHEERLEADERS

We've Got Spirit

The Junior High Cheerleaders have competed in the Cheerleading championships at Carowinds on October 10th and placed 5th; they were cheered on by over 50 Carmel Campus students. They also cheered for Carolina Lightnin' all season and sponsored spirit week Dec. 7-11. The cheerleaders held a Student-Faculty game in February. The Middle School has a newly organized Pep Club. They help the cheerleaders to stir up spirit and sponsor many activities.

The Junior Varsity Softball team led by co-captains Julie Brittain and Pat Hicks finished their first season tied for first place in the conference and with an overall record of 5-3. Close results occurred in both Latin games where only a one run difference won the game.

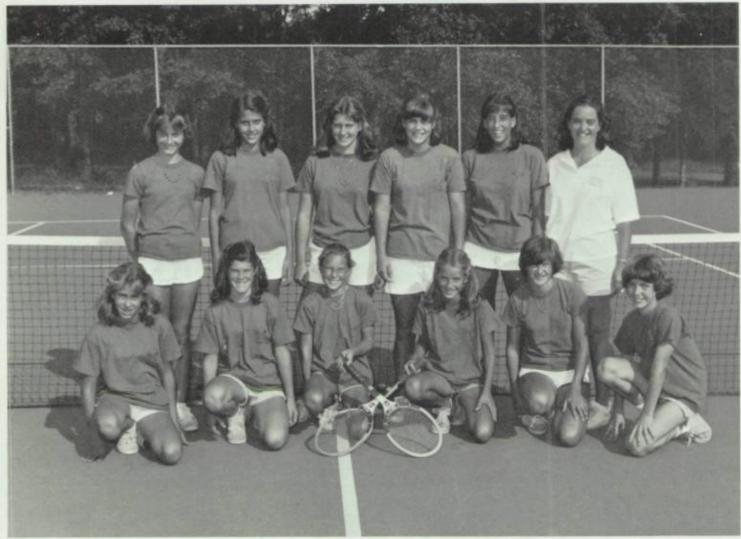

Julie Brittain and Nancy Hanes made life difficult for the opponents' batters with some excellent pitching. Pat Hicks received the Most Valuable Award and Brooke Ferguson the Most Improved.

Melinda Johnston, Margaret Belk, Isabel Hamilton and Elizabeth Levergood showed good defense in the infield while Nancy Hanes, Natalie Whisenant, Karen Wilkie and Marcia Owens controlled the outfield. Our team support was excellent especially from players coming off the bench like Susan Sommers, Merrie Mac Pell, Jenna Randolph, Louise Patrick, Maria Vazquez, and Katherine Davis.

Good luck to the ninth graders who go on to varsity play. What a first season!

GIRLS' J.V. TENNIS

The 1981-82 Upper School Student Council was led by President Marshall Mills. The Student Council consists of sixteen elected members, three representatives from each grade as well as a President, Vice-President, Treasurer, and Secretary. The main objectives of the Student Council, as stated in the Constitution, are: to represent the interests of the students; to strengthen the relationship among students, faculty, and administration; to encourage student involvement in the activities of the school; to promote cooperation among student organizations; and to promote the spirit of honor and integrity. During the 1981-82 school year the Student Council sponsored several activities inside and outside the Country Day community. Some of the year's accomplishments include the following: the creation of an Honor Council: the creation of an Interclub Council; aiding in the establishment of a test calendar; a successful Homecoming; taking part in Country Day's Fortieth Anniversary Celebration; Carnation Days; and Spring Campus Beautification Day. The 1981-82 Student Council felt a need for greater student involvement and input in the Country Day community. Through Town Meetings and able student leaders, the Council was able to hear students' ideas and suggestions.

The POSTSCRIPT is Charlotte Country Day's school yearbook. The 1981-82 POSTSCRIPT staff consisted of creative and well-organized students. Without these students, the 1982 POSTSCRIPT would not have been possible. The staff, led by Editor Lynn Tarte, and Business Editor Wanda Culbreth, met during two designated class periods a week. The purpose of the POSTSCRIPT is to preserve high school memories with photos and captions. Photographer Jimmy White provided many of the photos while staff members wrote captions and designed page layouts.

The National Honor Society represents those Juniors and Seniors of the Country Day student body who have outstanding qualities of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Over the past few years, the role of the National Honor Society has increased in both the Country Day and Charlotte communities. Blood Drives are now annually sponsored by the Honor Society. Over the Christmas holidays, the Honor Society collected clothing, toys, money, food, and other gifts for needy families. Discussions with the Middle School students concerning honor and school pride were held by the National Honor Society. Encouragement of honor and integrity is per-haps the main objective of the Honor Society. The 1981-82 National Honor Society was competently led by President Julie Huffman. Julie, along with Secretary-Treasurer Shelley Boulware, is pictured at

On February 4, 1982 the National Honor Society held its annual induction ceremony. The following students were inducted: Greg Gurski, Randi Kent, Marshall Mills, Louise Rogers, Lynn Tarte, Suci Roddey, Katie Fortune, John Harris, Kim Powell, John David Ramsey, Sara Smith, Benjy Sutker, Valerie Clayton, Jim Grode, Peter Hoecklin, Terri Martin, Aven Owen, Kristina Rundquist, and Claire Wilkerson.

Honor Council

The Honor Council was created during the 1981-82 school year under the direction of the Student Council and the administration. The members consist of one representative from each Upper School class, with the Senior class having two representatives. One member of the Student Council is also an Honor Council member. The first Honor Council was led by Chairman Lisa Schwartz. The Honor Council is concerned with disciplinary measures that may be placed upon a student who has broken the Honor Code. The Honor Council provides the faculty and administration with a student's point of view concerning actions that should be taken in the event of an honor violation. The creation of the Honor Council allows members of the student body to become more involved in decisions concerning Honor Code violations.

The BANNER is Country Day's Upper School newspaper. The BANNER and Editor-in-Chief Greg Gurski enjoyed a successful first year of publication. The main objective of the BANNER is to provide a week-to-week record of student activities and achievements, including sports and Fine Arts. The BANNER also publishes club news and information. Editorials are also an interesting and often controversial section in the BANNER. Student compositions and cartoons are also published. Several interviews were conducted by members of the Banner Staff, including interviews with Congressman Jim Martin and Lisa Birnbach, author of The Official Preppy Handbook. At right, Editor Greg Gurski and Scott Huelin hand out copies of the weekly BANNER newspaper. Aquilifer is an honorary service organization for girls at Country Day. Founded in 1960, Aquilifer is one of Country Day's oldest clubs. Aquilifer encourages qualities of leadership and exerts an influence of honor within the ranks of students. Aquilifer also sets an example for citizenship, academic scholarship and school spirit. Members are selected from grades ten, eleven and twelve for their outstanding service to the school, academic grades, and participation in a variety of activities. Those selected for membership must take part in an initiation, which includes dressing up for three days and following orders of members until completion of the initiation process. As members of a service organization, Aquilifer members help with the annual Halloween Parade, serve as marshals at graduation and Baccalaureate, and ushers at school functions such as plays. Aquilifer was involved in Country Day's Fortieth Anniversary Celebration. Future plans of Aquilifer include sponsoring a number of Upper School activities and becoming involved in the Charlotte community. According to 1981-82 Aquilifer President Mary Martha Bledsoe, "Aquilifer is a fun club with a definite purpose."

French Club

Country Day's French Club was founded in 1962 to promote French culture and language. Requirements for membership include completion of two terms of French II and an 85 or above grade average. Membership also requires students to attend a certain number of meetings. The French Club of 1981-82 was ably led by President Todd Gorelick, Vice-President Suci Roddey, Secretary Brian Meltsner, and Treasurer Rex Welton. Mrs. Giselle Shumake served as the French Club's Advisor. One of the highlights of the year was the adoption of a new French Club Constitution. The French Club joined the Spanish Club and the Latin Club in organizing several Language Club raffles. On December 9, 1981 the French Club participated in Country Day's Language Day. Club members produced a prize winning skit, a rendition of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." The 1982 Big Saturday International Pavilion was also adorned with the French Club's baked goods. At upper right, Brian Meltsner demonstrates his acting ability in the French Club play. Brian played the part of the wicked queen. The Latin Club of the 1981-82 school year was led by Counsul Mark Falls and Scribe Dain Dulainey. The purpose of Latin Club is to promote the language and culture of the ancient civilization. The Club fulfilled its purpose in many ways this year, including a celebration of Virgil's birthday. The Club also presented a book to the Country Day Learning Center. The Latin Club demonstrated ardent spirit during Language Day on December 9. A scene from the death of Julius Caesar was presented before the Upper School during Language Day. It is the hope of the 1981-82 Latin Club that future Latin Clubs continue to promote the language and ancient culture. The Latin Club has indeed been one of the most visible clubs of Country Day. At left, the Latin Club members participate in their Language Day play.

SEATED: Latta Chapman, Gena Graham, Martha Lassiter, Katie Fortune, Cyndy Risser, Lyn Liles, Greg Gurski, Louise Rogers, Aven Owen, Sharon Brown, Mark Portnoy STANDING: Bill Latimer, Gordon Watt, Graves Upchurch, Shep McKinley, Jamie Ferro

The 1981-82 Spanish Club was led by President Jamie Ferro, Vice President Sharon Brown, and Secretary Louise Rogers. The purpose of the Spanish Club is to promote the Spanish language and culture. This year, the Spanish Club became more visible and active in the Country Day community. During Language Day on December 9, 1981, the Club was awarded a trophy for having the most spirit. The Spanish Club participated in many Language Club raffles. Several bake sales were also held to raise money for the promotion of Spanish culture. On February 1, 1982 several members of the Club attended a play about Don Quixote. At far right, Jamie Ferro and Graves Upchurch are pictured in a scene from the Spanish Club play. The Math Club is one of Country Day's newest clubs, having been created during the 1981-82 school year. The Math Club was established to promote the developement of mathematical interest at Country Day, to provide a service to the school by tutoring needy students and to prepare for math contests. During the 1981-82 school year, the Math Club visited the new IBM plant and several members took part in math contests. Jennifer Smith served as the Club's first president. The Math Club hopes to give Country Day and its students and opportunity to make math a fun and exciting subject. At left, Math Club officers Debbie Lentz and Jennifer Smith are seated with the Club's advisor Mrs. Caldwell.

Computer Club

The Computer Club is one of the newest clubs at Country Day. Its members consist of students who express an interest and have established or potential skills in computers. Club members help those students outside the club who have trouble operating the computers. The Computer Club allows members to investigate possible careers in data processing and computer programming.

Research Teams

The Monogram Club is Country Day's honorary service club for boys. For a student to become a member, he must earn a letter in one Varsity sport. The Monogram Club was formed during the 1981-82 school year by Bill Tourtellot and Bo Dickens. The main objective of the Monogram Club is to provide services to the school, such as parking cars and taking on certain duties at school functions. The Monogram Club also involves itself in projects outside the school community.

Drama Club

The Country Day Drama Club consists of those students who are interested in promoting an active awareness of drama and acting. Members not only include actors, but also those students who work behind the scenes — students who work with lights, props and advertising. The 1981-82 Drama Club was led by President Ann McGregor and Vice-President Mark McCullough.

Band

In the spring of the 1979-80 school year the Band was made up of two flutists. However, by the winter term several others joined and a pep band was formed, primarily to play at football and basketball games. In the Spring Concert of the 1980-81 school year, a piece in the Dixie music style was played by several members of the Band. The response was so positive that the Dixie Band was formed. In addition to regular concerts this year, the Band played for Country Day's Fortieth Anniversary Celebration. The 1981-82 Band was led by President Kim Powell. Future plans include the formation of a marching band. At right, several Band members perform during the Fortieth Anniversary Celebration.

Interclub Council

During the 1981-82 school year, an Interclub Council was formed. The Interclub Council was created at the suggestion of the Student Council and the administration. It was felt by both organizations that clubs at Country Day needed a central government composed of all club presidents. This year's Interclub Council was led by Benjy Sutker, Vice-President of the Upper School Student Council. In its first year of existence, the Interclub Council organized club constitutions and rules of order. The creation of such an organization has allowed Country Day clubs to become more organized and unified.

The photos on this page represent many of the clubs that are involved in the Interclub Council. Clockwise from top left: Marshall Mills, President of the Student Council, makes a presentation during the Fortieth Anniversary Celebration; Rick Stubblefield and Mary Martha Bledsoe participate in the Latin Club's Language Day play; Mike Cofer protrays a place-kicker in the Spanish Club play; Louise Rogers, Greg Gurski, and Sharon Brown are portrayed as young doctors and nurses in the Spanish Club play; Ruth Pipkin, Lynn Tarte, and Debbie Hamel at work in the POSTSCRIPT room; Lisa Johns and Debbie Lentz are shown working at one of the National Honor Society's Blood Drives.

POSTSCRIPT regrets that there are no pictures of Country Day's literary magazine, GOLOS. The 1981-82 GOLOS staff consisted of Carol Baker, Peter Neibergall, Ruth Pipkin, and Editor Ann McGregor.

Society of The Arts

SEATED: Zan McKelway, Kim Powell, Claire Wilkerson, John David Ramsey, Muffin Kirk, Kim Newbanks, Cyndy Risser STANDING: Jeffrey Shapiro, Cynthia Farbman, Fred Dockery

The Country Day Society of the Arts was founded in 1980 by Cary Svich, a member of the Class of 1981. The Society of the Arts was established to serve as a "Booster Club" for the Arts. The Society also helps the Fine Arts Department with such arrangements as advertising and stage crews. The Society produces its own plays as well. John David Ramsey and Zan McKelway served as Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Society of the Arts for the 1981-82 school year.

Stop of Stop Sources

The Ski and Outdoors Club consists of those students whose interests range from skiing and hiking to rock climbing. The Club sponsors several ski trips during the year, including a trip to Vail, Colorado. This year's Ski and Outdoors Club was led by President Gordon Walker.

YOU'RE A GOOD MAN, CHARLIE BROWN

FLOWERS FOR ALGERNON

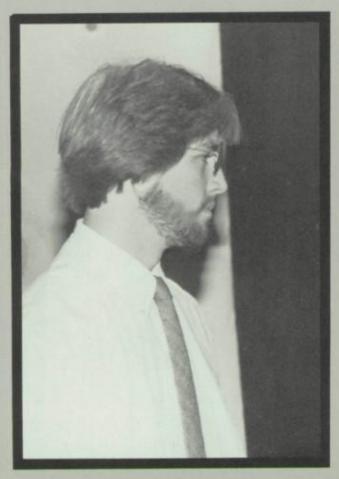

The CCDS Drama Workshop produced FLOWERS FOR ALGERNON as its fall 1981 play. The play tells the poignant story of mentally handicapped Charlie Gordon, a willing victim of an operation that will boost his mind to genius level. Through a span of seven months, Charlie grows mentally and emotionally; tragically, however, just as Charlie begins to understand and enjoy his relationships with others, he regresses and reverts back to his mentally handicapped state.

Another growing facet of Country Day's inspirational Fine Arts program is the Dance Company. Every afternoon, a group of enthusiastic dancers met to perfect this beautiful and graceful art. To further their education, the Dance Company attended performances by professional groups and were visited dancer Don Foreman. The Dance Company presented its finest work at a production in the spring of 1982.

The 1981 Spring Choral performance was a tribute to the popular music of past decades. The memorable and nostalgic numbers were supplemented by various skits and dances reminiscent of past eras.

A COUNTRY DAY CHRISTMAS 1981

The 1981 Christmas Choral Concerts were a unique experience. Based on the theme of an international Christmas, songs were sung in French, Spanish, Latin, and English; a Jewish folk dance was performed by the Mixed Ensemble and Mrs. Woods' first grade class presented a lively version of the pinata dance. A Country Day Christmas Concert was given outside the Fine Arts Theater. Parents, students, and faculty were invited to join the choirs in singing some well-known carols.

Country Day's many talented singers were divided into five choral sections: Seventh Grade. Eighth Grade, Mixed, Girls' Choirs, plus the Mixed Ensemble. The last group is a new choral division whose main function is to be a "show" choir, performing modern and popular songs. All five groups, directed by Harold Lowery, are fine examples of the devoted young talent Country Day has to offer. At right, Maria Vasquez and Me-

FINE ARTS SPECIAL FEATURES

The Country Day community had the unique opportunity to see a performance by the Drakensburg Boys Choir from the Republic of South Africa, directed by Lionel van Zyl. Other Fine Arts performances included several instrumental and vocal student recitals. These presentations were inspirational examples of the talent present in the Country Day student body.

BAND

The Country Day Fine Arts Band program has progressed and increased under the direction of Gary Forbis. This sincere and hardworking conductor has created a twenty member Upper School Pep Band, a fifteen member Middle School Pep Band, an eleven member Dixieland Jazz Band, a thirty-five piece Stage Band and a fifty member Beginners Band. Plans are already in progress for the first Country Day Marching Band.

LOWER AND MIDDLE SCHOOL ART PROGRAMS

The Lower and Middle School Art Programs emphasize imagination and creativity in an effort to make art both educational and fun. The students are encouraged to participate in a variety of artistic experiments. For example, some Lower School students were able to take part in Senior Brian Meltsner's art project.

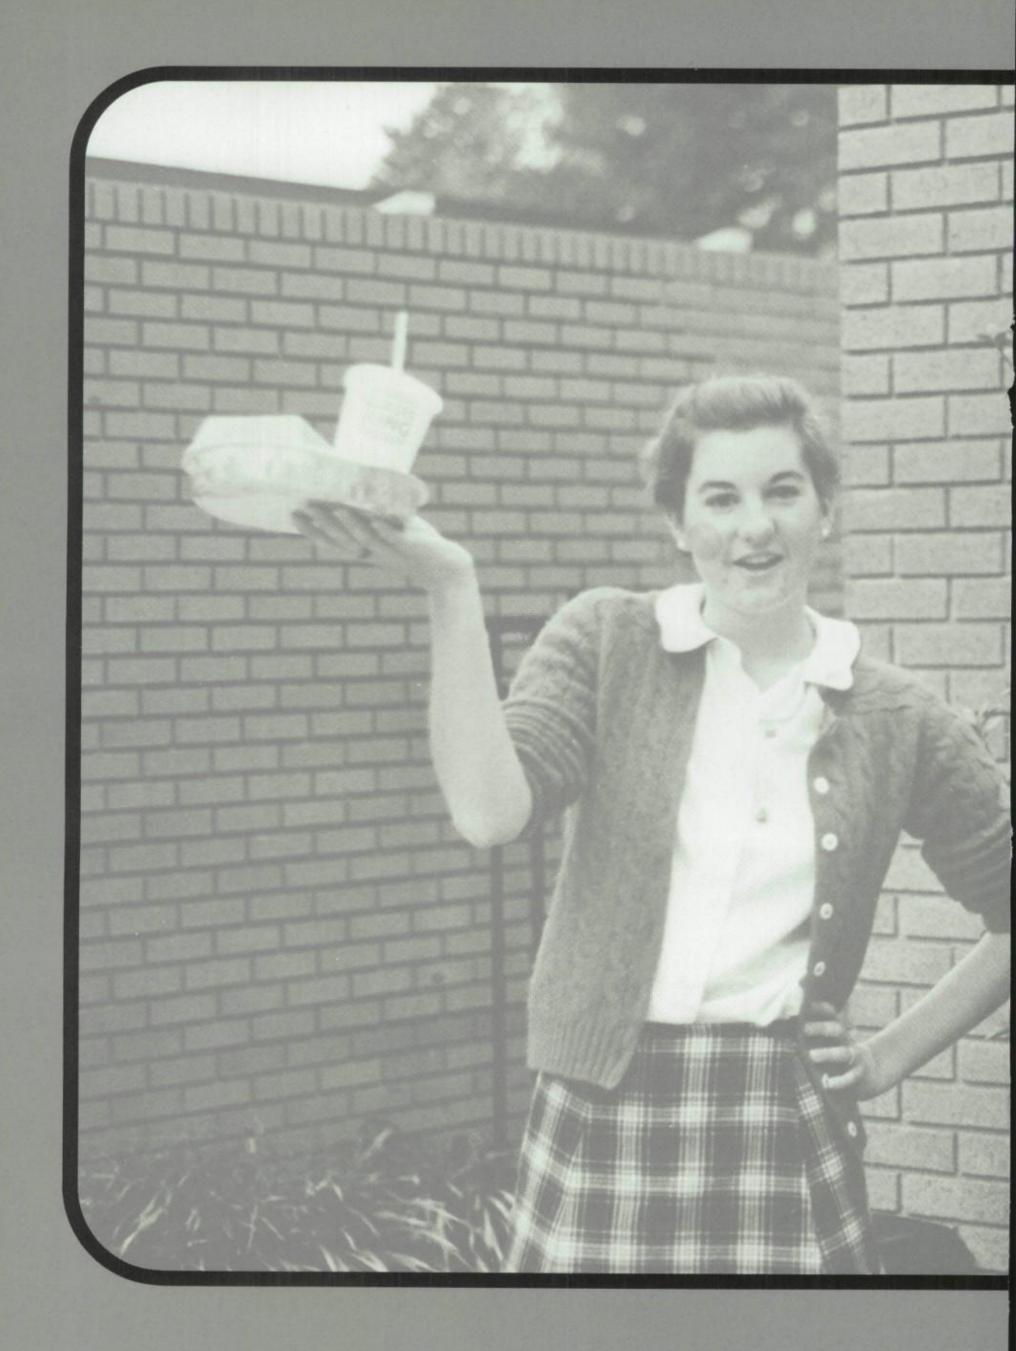

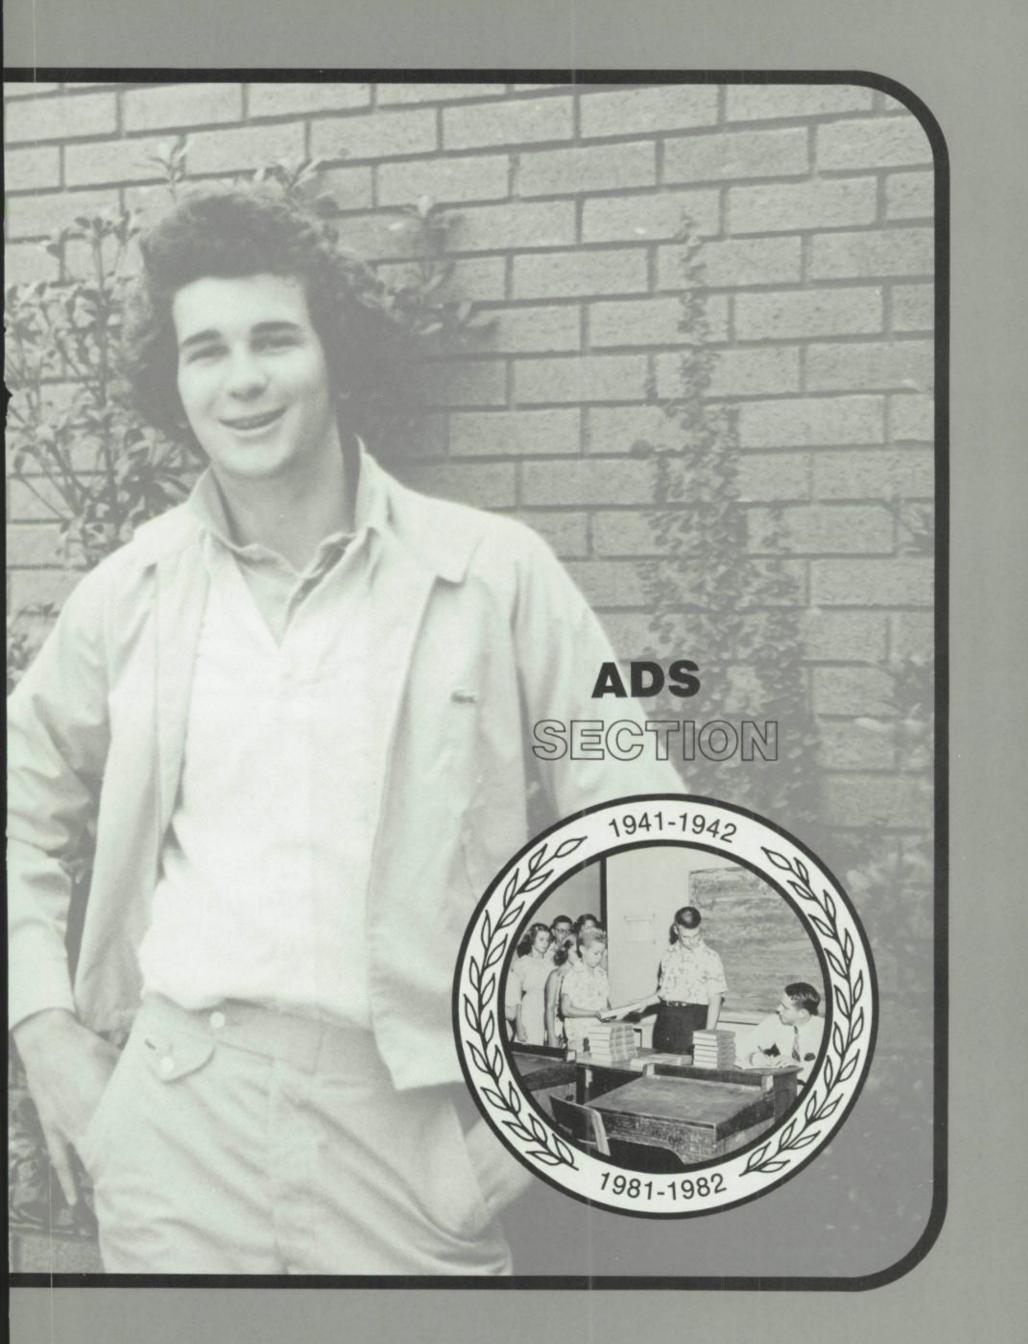

Clockwise, starting from upper left corner: A Lower School student participates in Senior Brian Meltsner's art project; Krissie Hein, Tiffany Erwin, and Jamie Ferro in a poignant scene from FLOWERS FOR ALGERNON; Becky Johnson, Fran Sokevitz, and Wanda Culbreth participate in one of the many exercises that the Dance Company performs; Graves Upchurch howls as Snoopy in the 1981 Spring Musical YOU'RE A GOOD MAN, CHARLIE BROWN; John McCoy and Mary Beth Huskey portray Frank and Gina, two characters from FLOWERS FOR ALGERNON; Freshman Kendell Lesser is pictured in a scene from FLOWERS FOR ALGERNON.

This yearbook is the culmination of the hard work of many dedicated people. The staff started work during the summer and continued on through late March. The advisors, often working under less than ideal circumstances, did excellent work with picture sales and organization as well as providing valuable support and encouragement. The staff stayed after school for many hours and gave up many free periods in order that the yearbook deadlines could be met in time. Forty years after Country Day first opened, the 1982 Postscript is indicative of the spirit traditionally pervading the Country Day atmosphere.

The staff hopes you enjoyed the book and wishes you an enjoyable summer.
